Jerrold was born on June, 7, 1954 in Charleston, SC, son of the late Walter and Susie Almers. Jerrold was my baby. He was employed by Robert Bosch and retired after 40 years. He loved his Bosch family. Especially, Ernie, Jerry, Gary and Richard. He was a very competitive softball player and coached many teams, including the Bosch team along with his lifelong friend Louie Craven. He played for Summerville Greenwave, graduating in 1973. The greatest punter. He along with his two brothers wore the #82. He, and his brothers are mentioned in Coach McKissick's book. His three girls didn't know there was anywhere else to go but a softball tournament every weekend. He also coached his daughters softball teams when they were growing up.

Jerrold loved playing golf after he became ill, that was all he watched on TV 24/7.

Survivors including his wife Shirley are: three daughters: Heidi A. Varela (Francisco) of Moncks Corner, Holli Almers of Summerville and Hayli A. Dantz (Tony) of Boiling Springs; four stepchildren: Melanie Snipes (Michael) of Summerville, Steven Robinson (Jenn) of Boise, ID, Brandon Evanoff of California and Christopher Dorothy of Summerville; nine grandchildren: Kolbie, Brandon, Zuri, Jaykob, Alex, Kingston, AdiLee, Xavier and Olivia; four step grandchildren: Emma, Leila, Zachary, Elijah; six sisters: Carolyn A. “ To, my baby, you were Born Again Christian and went to Heaven so young but one thing I can say the whole seven and a half years we together were the best times we had together. We laugh and cry and did silly things. One thing I always said let`s go paint the Town Red and we would go and we would go to Cuppor Mannor coffee shop to listen to the music and we love it until you started getting worse we had to stop but those were some of the great times we had together and other things he did before you got worst. I always called you my baby and you would call me baby and I got you out of your depression and you were happy all the time because I made you laugh and spoiled you rotten and waited on you hand and foot. to the end, I was with you till death do us part I know you are out of your pain and in a better place. (heaven) I love and miss you my, Baby. Your darling wife (Baby) Shirley Adams Almers. Too we meet again

“ Gerald was one of my first good friends when I moved to Summerville in 1970. We roomed together at Laurenburg and remained good friends since. God bless the Almers family, I know Tater is in a better place and smiling down on you.

“ I have many great memories of the Tater head. Met him at Bosch, played softball with him on (as he put it) the world famous Injectors as well as other softball teams in and around Summerville. One of my fondest memories is how good he made you feel when he saw you after a long period of time. He would loudly say to me or Sue " How is my bestest friend in the whole wide world" and he made you feel he meant it. I'm sure he said this to all of his friends because he loved us all. He now is with our bestest friend in the whole wide world, and I don't mean Richard Campbell although he is worthy. I can only imagine what those two are up to now. I'll close with another memory that I'll attribute to Tater although Ricky Green maybe responsible for it, but I'm sure he won't mind sharing it with Tater. Tater would almost always say "Take it Lite" when departing, not goodbye, so I'll close as well, Take it Lite Tater until we meet again.

“ WOW So sorry to hear about Jerrold,He truly made school bearable for me. He had his own sense of humor & little chuckle that could make you laugh even when it was so hot you thought you were gonna die at football practice He was a lot more than a teammate he was my friend.just a great person to be around. I haven't seen him in a long time but from the picture it looks like he still had that smile & chuckle. I thank the Lord for letting me know Jerrold. The Almers Clan are in my thoughts & prays. #84 David Campbell (and yes he was a great punter, he could get his foot in the ball)
