“ Thanks for the many wonderful years you spent helping to raise our daughter. You were such a role model and inspired her to be the young woman she is today. I thank you with all my heart. Most of all Mama, thanks for making us feel like family all the years we lived there. You have a most special place in our hearts. I am so thankful I could call you Mama and that God let our lives cross paths. The memories of MaHallie's growing up years will always remain some of the most special days of our lives because you were such an important part of everything. Your support, love, advice, prayers and all you did for her and for us will never be forgotten. You were my friend, my Mama, and my second mom. Thank you for all the roles you were to me. You filled all of them perfectly. I love you Mama and thanks from the bottom of my heart. Debbie Martin
