

Jimmie Mae Harrison

October 10, 1937 - July 28, 2015

Mrs. Jimmie Mae Harrison, 77, beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother passed away peacefully at her home, Wednesday evening, July 28, 2015.

Mrs. Harrison was born on October 10, 1937 in Liberty, S.C., daughter of James P. and Lulu Mae LaBoone. She married Jimmie Reid Harrison in 1957 and settled in Summerville, S.C. in 1973 when she began her longtime career as a bookkeeper and typesetter for the Summerville Journal Scene.

Her husband, Jimmie Reid Harrison, a career Air Force veteran preceded her in death. Together they had four children, two who have also preceded her in death, Barry Reid Harrison and Susan Renee Stewart.

Mrs. Harrison has been a devoted member of Miles Road Baptist Church for over forty years.

Mrs. Harrison is survived by two daughters; Rebecca Harrison Cross (husband, Thomas Joseph Cross, Jr.), Kimberly Harrison (Sunny) Carter, (fiancé, Denis Strobel), six grandchildren, Jennifer Locklair Clark (husband, Eric R. Clark), Ray Stanley Locklair Jr., Michael David Stewart, Stephanie Nicolle Cross, Chandler Scott Carter, and Harrison Paige Cross; and one great-granddaughter, Locklair Ellusan (Lola) Clark.

The service will be held at Miles Road Baptist Church on Saturday, August 1, 2015 at 1:00 pm. Memorials may be made to Miles Road Baptist Church, 816 Miles Road Summerville, S.C. 29485.

“ You don't know me but I had the privilege of having Bible Study class with Miss Jimmie. At first she seemed so shy, but with time, her real personality shined through. She had a razor sharp wit, was always there with a helping hand, and I never saw her without that BEAUTIFUL smile on her face!! Your mom was someone I was proud to call my friend, and will be looking forward to spending eternity with her!
