“ Mel and I express our sadness for the loss of our kind and loving sister-in-law. We have wonderful memories of our meetings in Charleston during our visits there as well as at family gatherings. In marriage, two wonderful families were joined in beautiful unity. We will always remember Jo's love for animals at the Charleston Animal Society which is an important part of our memory of this special and caring sister. We will miss her. Our deepest sympathy and condolences to you all on this sad occasion.
