“ Silver, I was so sorry to hear of Johnny's passing. My thoughts immediately turned to you. You and Johnny shared a love many people only dream of. When we love so deeply, our loss is all the greater. May you find comfort in knowing Johnny is at peace and in the knowledge you will see him again. May you and your family feel the blessings of the many prayers and much love being sent your way. God Bless my dear friend!

“ Sylvia, such a tremendous loss for you, Tony and all of your family. Johnny was our adopted brother and I know he felt the same about Virgil and I. What joys we shared over the last 50+ years, I reflect on them often. He entered heaven yesterday, arriving to a cheering crowd of family and friends, what a celebration that must have been. With tears streaming as I write this please accept my heartfelt sorrow and at the same time awesome comfort knowing Johnny is at peace with Jesus. My prayers are with you.
