“ I am really going to miss you Mr Jack. It was a happy day when I met you and starting taking over delivering the Kapers, I really made a true friend, we shared lots of talks and you are so funny. You became good friends to me and Patrick. We are so very blessed to have had you in our lives. God bless your family and rest in peace my dear friend, Enjoy heaven and we will see you again. We love you and Stratford will never be the same.

“ Our prayers and love are with you always. I am so sorry we are unable to attend the visitation and funeral. Due to Charlie's unexpected retina detachment requiring immediate surgery, we are forced to stay home. However, you all are not far from our thoughts. Wish we could be there. Charlie & Sandy
