“ Brittany; I am so sorry to hear of your Grandfather's passing. Your Grammy really had alot of respect for him. She told me what a good man he was and a good provider. I will certainly remember you and your family in my prayers.

“ I met Wayne many years ago , his wife Pat and I were good friends , worked on many church programs together at their home , Wayne would always be more than willing to make us props , you could see the love he had for his family , and those two little girls had him wrapped , such a loving and kind man . Rest high on that mountain Wayne!

“ When my sister Jean first introduced me to Pat and Wayne I had just got out of the Army. He was so nice to me because I was a veteran. That meant so much to me. He did that long before it was the “in” thing to do. I had been in Germany for three years. I was pretty pale! I had gotten cut and had some scars n my wrist from a rock concert. He and Pat said I could get some sun in no time and cover them. They weren’t kidding about the sun down there! Sweetest people with loving hearts. They are together now.
