“ Most people did not know the side of her, that I had the unfortunate awareness of being subjected to. She was a predator and she abused her power of authority and trust over me. She intimidated, manipulated, threatened and assaulted me, while I was in an extremely vulnerable place in my life. All under the guise of consoling, pretending to be a friend and acting like someone who cared. The only thing she cared about was her ulterior motive, her hidden agenda. My innocence, self identity and dignity was taken away beyond my control. It was not anything that I ever wanted, not ever! It is only now, that I can say these words. I am finally set free from the shame of it all. There does come a time, where we all must answer for the bad that we have done in this world. I forgave her a long time ago, but I can never forget. I do pray that God has shown mercy to her and that she may rest in peace in his good grace.

“ Jorgie has been on my heart for several weeks lately, so when I went online to maybe try and reach out after a few years apart, this seemed impossible. Doug, I'm so very sorry for your loss. Jorgie was a beautiful person and a wonderful friend to me and my girls when y'all were here in DC/VA. I regret so much not keeping in touch! I pray that time has found a way to soften the pain and grief and that grace and healing have been granted to you and the boys. My most sincere condolences to you all.

Jorgie was a bright candle that burned out way too soon. Her passing leaves a great big hold in all our hearts and lives. We will miss her very much. I remember taking care of her and my son Spencer (her cousin) when they were babies, trying to hold them both at the same time, almost dropping them.

“*Doug and the Boys,
I have worked with Jorge in the Department of the Interior's Budget Office for the past four years and I am simply at a loss for words. She simply loved her family and you were all the highlight of her life. During our morning walks to Dunkin Donuts for tea, I cannot recall a day going by without Jorge speaking of her family.*

Jorge was a warm hearted woman with a huge smile and a kindred spirit. She often offered to assist where she could. During her afternoon "chocolate runs" to our office, Jorge would once again share stories about "her boys". She was truly a "Momma Bear".

"Trust in the Lord with all of your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all of your ways, submit to HIM and HE will make your paths straight." ~ Proverbs 3:5-6

*Doug, may you and your family find comfort as your journey through your loss.

“ *Dearest Doug, Fuzz, Brandon and Bailey,
We had the privilege of going to church with the five of you in Virginia. I don't need to tell you that your mom/wife was a kind, caring, intelligent and loving woman of faith. My favorite memory of her is simply how her eyes lit up every time we talked about her three babies. You three, and of course your dedicated incredible dad too, were the light of her life. She loved Jesus. It was clear He lived in her....and now, not only is the Holy Spirit with you always but, your mom is with you always as well. We are praying the good Lord gives you peace and that your amazing mama gives you strength to continue to be the awesome young men she raised you to be. We are praying without ceasing. Here for you always-so much love,

“ I meet Jorgie on the USS Hunley. She reenlisted me. We stayed in contact on and off. She was one of the best officers in the Navy that I ever knew. I will keep your family in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Doug and Kids,

My condolences to you, the boys and your family. I found out yesterday about her passing and I was so devastated. I will miss her and I know your family will miss her, as well. I can't say enough about Jorge, she was a true friend. Jorge was my budget analyst, at DOI and she was awesome. We would have long conversations about family and work. She kept me straight with our budget (OFAS). I departed from DOI in March 2020, but we still kept in touch with each other. In fact, when I told her I was getting married and the date, she started laughing to say, that is my wedding anniversary. I was happy to share that date with you both. Your wife/mother was a imaging person. The one thing that I know, her husband and her boys meant the world to her.

“ Hi Doug, I'm sending my condolences to you, your children, and your grandchildren. Jorge was our budget analyst. I worked with her very closely for the past two years. I'm a retired Air Force Officer, so we would tease each other about our Services. We shared many laughs and our love of chocolate. And we even did a little budget work. Jorge was an amazing woman that loved to brag about her family. She was a dedicated public servant that made many contributions to our government over her career. She had the patience of Job and would simply smile while explaining some budget concept to me for the second, third, or fourth time. I think if you look up "customer service" in the dictionary, you will see a picture of Jorge. She was a delight to work with and I valued our friendship. I will miss her terribly, but she will live on through my fond memories of her.

Kind Regards,
