“ I remember dancing around in aunt juanitas house. She was laughing at us. I also remember wonderful times at camp harmon. It was our special place that years later we would talk about. She also surprised me a few years ago and showed up at my door step in Seymour TnI have never felt so greatful to see a her. I had not seen her in years but it was like no time had passed. I miss my family everyday and it was great to see a sweet face. U will be missed but never forgotten. Hug Grammy and pop for me.....love u
