“ I spilled his coffee when he did my audit in accounting one time. He never let me live that down. He had to put up with my atrocious handwriting as well. I really enjoyed getting to know Justin. I know he is Heaven and walking those streets of gold.

God will never forsake you and I hope and trust you will lean on him in these difficult days ahead.

“ I have known this wonderful man since he was born, seen him develop into one of the most loving and compassionate people I know. He had a contagious smile and easy going manner. He dearly loved his family and made sure he stayed in touch to assure himself everything was ok. God certainly has an angel in his kingdom with Justin Yoder. I loved him!

“ We went to church with Justin and Renee for years. We had the pleasure of getting to know them both personally during small group. Justin could light up any room just by being in it. Great sense of humor and an all around wonderful human being. His loss will be felt by so many. Our sincerest condolences.

I did not know Justin but worked with his G/father, Marvin. A man of great integrity, honesty and trustworthy. I just loved being in his presence. These same comments also apply to My friend Norris.

“ Justin was my friend and a man that I loved like a brother. He was a man willing to risk his life every Sunday protecting the congregation of Summerbrook Church as the Safety Team Leader. He was a kind and caring man who always would help anyone in need. He was an example to all men as a husband, father and a follower of Jesus Christ. His commitment to God, family and love for country was unmatched. Although I only knew Justin for 4.5 years, but it felt like a lifetime because of our phenomenal friendship. My heart is shattered but I know God has a special place in heaven for a man like Justin. I will never forget Justin and he will always have a special place in my heart.

“ I've known Justin since middle school. We remained friends all through high school, college and beyond. Since he moved to the coast, we didn't see each other much. But when we did, we were still like old friends. He was a good man, husband, father, and friend. I'm still in shock. Renee and all the family are in my prayers. Justin will be missed, but I know he was saved and loves God. In that, I take comfort in knowing where he is, and that we'll see him again. God bless you buddy.

“ Justin was such a blessing to me. He kept up with me and how I was doing on my weight loss journey. He always encouraged me. He would tell me about the meals Renee would make that was on my eating plan. We would talk about ways to make them better. He and Renee were always a joy to share time with . I loved his smile and always good attitude. He loved his family. I will sorely miss him. My heart goes put to Renee and family.
