“ When we worked at WF together we knew we had an instant bond. All it took was seeing the Buffalo Bills sticker on my car and we were family, me being from Buffalo and Karen being a huge Bills fan from Rochester. We shared many games together if not in person, over the phone or feverishly texting each other updates and WOOHOO's! We grew even closer as time passed when she was in her darkest hour and through trials that family life brought me. We always understood, never judged and knew the other was only a call away at any time. We looked out for one another, enjoyed pool time, sleepovers and a few hospital trips. Karen ALWAYS beamed with pride when speaking about Heather and Michael and she treasured their relationships. So much so that one Christmas Karen was so worried she hadn't sent their Christmas chocolate mints and she hadn't quite figured out how to use Amazon that she asked if I would send to the kids in her name just to make sure she kept their tradition alive. We shared so many special moments and every one of them will be a memory that now makes me smile and look up thanking God for my time with her. I wish I was able to visit the hospital for final goodbyes but my Covid shot prevented me from leaving home for several days and I think it was her way of making sure I always remembered her just the way she was. Karen was much more than a friend and missing her doesn't adequately explain the void that she's left. I'm so very very thankful for our final conversation last Wednesday that always ended with "I love you girl". They are sentiments that I will hold dear and always remember her sweet gentle voice. Always and forever Go Bills!
