“ Karie was a light in the darkness to me. My bestfriend and she dried a many a tear from my eyes. I can't explain the bond we had and our friendship was like none other I have experienced. I will never forget dancing and being goofy listening to one radio with a splitter. She loved life and loved music. She loved jokes and making people laugh. She was a spitfire and would fight for you in a heartbeat no matter the consequences. My bestfriend bully she was one of a kind and she brought me happiness and kept me from losing it many times. I wished we could have spent time together in her final days but life has a way of stealing your time and we never did get together., we both thought we had plenty of time. Rest easy babygirl love you and you will forever be missed. Love and Loyalty ❤️ My condolences are with the family and the babies. I pray that you will find comfort and peace in this heartbreakingly sad time.
