“ I was so sorry to read this sad news of Kathy's death. We went to school together starting with North Charleston Primary School. She was a member of the Charleston Pilot Club and we got to visit at meetings. I remember in first grade she would drink my milk (didn't like white milk) for me. She used to live by my aunt and uncle and we would visit there also. She was a "jewel" We have not been in touch for a few years but. I considered her a friend and I loved her very much. Many thoughts and prayers for her family. May God bless each of you! Nell Bates Beasley
