“ I dearly loved Uncle Keith. He and my father were such good friends who shared their love of humor. I would imagine that they are enjoying their reunion. Keith was also a loving, caring brother for my mother. I am saddened by his passing but look forward to spending Eternity with him.

“ I had the pleasure and honor of serving with Keith on board the USS Holland in Charleston. During my fifty years of military related service, I never encountered a more dedicated and selfless military chaplain. He personally, came to the aid of me and my family clearly above and beyond his professional responsibility It was my observation that no matter one's rank or station in life, Chaplain Wooster would do all he could to help. The high state of morale enjoyed by the crew of the Holland was, largely, attributable to his willingness to go the extra mile. When I reflect upon the the great men and women I served with, Keith Wooster is among the first names I recall. Though I rarely saw him after I retired from the Navy, I will be sad Knowing that he is no longer with us. I know that Keith has reported for duty in heaven and asking how can he help. May the Lord comfort those of us who note his loss.
