“ I have fond memories of Kelli when we attended ECPI together. We followed each other on social media since graduating, and I followed her courageous battle with cancer. I've been praying for her and her loved ones since learning of her passing. She truly was a beautiful (inside and out) person. May she RIP in God's arms 💕🙏

“ Kelli is probably one of the most memorable co workers I have ever had. She is funny, smart, determined, humble and always gave more that she received. Kelli is a true fighter, a proud mother and a loyal friend. She impacted a lot of lives over the years and I am grieving for all of her friends and family that have lost such a sweet soul. Our loss is heavens gain. Good bye for now until we all meet again.
