An excerpt from "For Fran" by Kiki Doscher

She seems to glide effortlessly on the warm summer breeze, she shines, casting the warm glow of inspiration on the hearts of those fortunate enough to behold her.

She married the love of her life Charlie and was Mother to Olivia, Hayden and Grace, whom she loved with all of her heart.

Her family was the center of her world. As a daughter, sister, wife, mother, aunt or adoptive Mom of all the kids' friends, her bright light, compassion and love was bestowed on all.

Kiki loved all aspects of life, but a good book was a welcomed break in her busy schedule. Her true passion was music, and she had a beautiful voice. She loved to be with her family and friends, special occasions, holidays or impromptu trips to the beach; she could be found laughing and cutting up with her loves. She loved to sing, dance and write. The artistic things were a huge part of her life. She even married the drummer. Some of her favorite singers were Anita Baker, Sade and Sarah McLaughlin, who she sounded a lot like.

If it looks like an angel and sounds like an angel and walks like an angel, then surly she was our Angel on earth. If anyone needed her help, love or support in any way she was sure to give it. She was exceptional. As a mother her children never lacked for nurturing, protection or love. Ever heard of the term "Mama Bear"? You'd find her picture under the definition.

Another term comes to mind when you think of her marriage, "Meant to be". She and Charlie embodied what we all hope to find in a marriage. The love of your life. Love, first and foremost, was epic, both loving the other.... More. Teamwork, compromise and willingness to put the good of the other, always produced a secure safe space where they could laugh, joke and determine the next chapter of their lives. Suffice to say, they worked really well together.

Daughter, she loved and honored her parents. Sister, she loved and honored her siblings. Aunt, Cousin, or any other descriptive branch of family, she loved and honored them. Friends, co-workers or acquaintance, she loved and honored them. Any person, animal or living thing who ever had the pleasure of crossing her paths had the fortune to know true genuine light, love and friendship of a most extraordinary woman. She gave of herself freely, loved fiercely, and laughed readily every chance she got. She lived life and it was a good life.

She seems to glide effortlessly on the warm summer breeze, she shines, casting the warm glow of inspiration on the hearts of those fortunate enough to behold her. It was if she were writing her own self into existence; these words described her perfectly.

When she comes to mind, do not mourn, see her beautiful smile, hear her melodious laughter, you will have no choice but to smile back. She is so loved, will be so missed. We will love her forever.

When we lost touch, I never knew why. Now that I know, I'll never be the same. Sleep softly. We'll sing together again someday.

“ Charlie Hayden & Gracie

Words simply fail to describe the heaviness in our hearts as we mourn the passing of one so cherished. It's beyond safe to say that Kiki had a profound impact on all of our lives. Our sons viewed her as a second mother. I through the years came to look at her as my 3rd sister. In every since of the word friend Kiki was and will forever remain Fran's true north. It is FACT that blood could've never made them any closer! As we attempt to press forward we do so knowing that we each shared in the very best that Kiki had to offer and that we are all the better for having her in our lives. Please know that you have been and will continue to be in our hearts and prayers as we all navigate this difficult time. Our love and support will always be yours.

“ When I first became an educator , it was at North Charleston High School. While working in the Deaf and Hard of Hearing Department, I not only met wonderful students in the program, but many other wonderful students at the school. Kiki was one of them. I remember such a pretty girl with such a sweet smile. Very kind.

The last time I saw her was at a birthday party for the wonderful Mr. Collier who gave me me my first job in education.

When I saw her, I was pleasantly surprised to see she had become a beautiful young woman. And she was still so kind.

So sad to hear of her passing. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends.

She was and is a happy memory.
