“ Kurt was an incredible human with such a bright light that he shared with everyone who was ever around him. He was such a great boss and impacted me very much in the short time we shared as coworkers. I will always remember his kindness.

“ I was lucky enough to meet Kurt through a mutual friend via Facebook. It's odd to meet your families cousin that way but I am only grateful for the fact that I met him at all! Kurt and Kyle visited us the times and spent special family time together in Florida and he was as much a part of our family as anyone. Family that is created by choice and love is the best family ever! I already miss his sense of humor and quick wit and feel honored that I was able to witness the love shared in his home as he was entering transition. I will never forget him gently stroking Kyle's hair and holding Chanda's hand with love flowing everywhere! I'm so grateful I was able to say goodbye to my friend and my girls' cousin and know that he will be watching over this beautiful family and my girls. Blessings and loving prayers to Chanda, Kyle and her boys. We will always be here for you with the family love!

“ Kurt and I worked together at The Post and Courier and shared a lot of laughs through those years, often sparked by choice movie quotes of which he had plenty. We were in separate departments at the newspaper and that was probably best because he was a Steelers fan and I was one to regularly convey my post game analysis on Tom Brady’s ability to read defenses. Kurt was a hockey fan too so we’d gather for Stingrays games where we’d let our kids eat whatever they wanted and behave at will. With an infectious grin, Kurt was one who enjoyed a good sarcastic exchange. He was a friend, a colleague, and by all measures a great dad. Kurt will be missed. Mark Gallagher - Charleston SC

“ Kurt was a wonderful friend. He was the best listener and so easy to talk to. I will miss our long conversations. I loved his humor! When my daughter was in high school, he thought it would be hilarious to go with me to a parent meeting and pretend to be her dad and embarrass her. You should have seen the look on her face when he walked in with me. Did he ever show you how to eat a chicken wing?? If not, you missed out! I'm so grateful to have a video of his chicken wing eating skills. He lived life to it's fullest! He will be missed, dearly. I will keep his family in my prayers.
With love, Mel, Shelby, and Jonah Buck

From the day my husband and I moved next door to the Knapek's in Beaver, Pennsylvania we knew we were lucky to have such special neighbors. Kurt was 12 years old and Erica was 10. They embraced our young family as their own. We always kept in touch with Ernie and door even after we moved out of state.

I was thrilled when I reconnected with Kurt on Facebook and have followed his wonderful life with Kyle, Chanda, and her sons. We were truly blessed as a family to know Kurt, his sister Erica, and his mom and dad Ernie and Dot. Kurt will be truly missed.

“ I just can't believe you're gone, Kurt. I will remember you fondly. Your amazing laugh and smile, fun game nights, our road trip to Hilton Head, cookouts..it's been a long time since I've seen you. But I was keeping up with your journey and really thought if anyone could beat this...if ANYONE could beat this, it would have been you. I will say that the one thing that brings a smile to my face is that you and Mandy are reunited again. Man, what a great reunion that must have been. You guys behave up there and have all the fun. Your family is in my thoughts and your memory will live on, always, my friend. #cancersucks

“ It has been through FB that I have form a picture in my mind's eye of Kurt. I "see" him as a very caring and compassionate family-man, who has shown himself to empress his Cancer in ways that not many could. And in doing so, has left a lasting impression on many. R.I.P., Kurt

“ Kurt was truly a one-of-a-kind man. His sense of humor will forever be remembered by his friends. We truly lost a great man in Kurt. My prayer is that his family is comforted by the many lives Kurt touched while he was with us... and he's laughing now in Heaven because I used the word "touched.”
