“ My deepest sympathies to all the family and friends. Larry was a brother firefighter. That comes with a special piece of immortality. A firefighter may pass but his memory remains. At the fire station he will be remembered. The remaining firefighters will talk about the good times, the bad times, the sad times and the funny times. It's the one occasion where the new guard gets to meet the old guard, the names they have heard through the years, and now get to put a face with. The retired firefighters get to pay respect to a fallen brother. We all know our turn will come, but we also know as long as the fire station stands we will be spoken about as if we were still there. You will be missed Larry but you will never be gone. Rest In Peace....BJ Scott

“ Larry was one of the best coworkers anyone could have. He was a dear friend and like a second dad. He loved when I would make Pecan Pies for him and Mrs Marilyn. He would laugh and ask if they could adopt me. Sure will miss ya my friend.

It's been a pleasure knowing Larry & working with him over the years. He could always help me smile & was one of the most big hearted & most genuine person I ever met. I'm blessed to call him my friend. I sure will miss seeing him at the gate & him giving me a hard time for whatever. He truly earned his wings & is dancing those streets of gold. I'll miss u my friend & all those talks at the hydro & relying on him for coffee. Jefferies won't be the same without u.
