“ Mom I remember you reading the Bible lesson every night! I thank you for that, and I wish I could still be right there for another one nightly! You are still a great inspiration today, please know your prayers are being answered as I'm still here for a reason right now. The Grace of the good Lord Jesus Christ saved me from the valley of death and I'm here to testify that! God is good and I will live as long as he allows praising his name! Thank you mom and R.I.P. Amen.

“ I thought of you with love today, but that is nothing new,I thought about you yesterday and days before that too. “ I agree with your baby, momma--it is very hard to believe! Seems time is flying by. I feel your presence with me each morning and through the day and that is a blessing! I start each day looking at the world and toward the heavens thinking of you and asking God to take care of all of us left here on earth till we can be in Heaven with Him and you and all our family. Then I see a bird and hear their song and think about how lovely God's creations are and how wonderful it must be to be there with Him and watching it all happen before your own eyes--sunrises, sunsets, clouds, flowers--just all the beauty the world and beyond must hold and I am just so glad you are there sharing it with Him and that we will get to share it with you some day! I love you, momma with all my heart--that will never change!

“ Hard to believe its been a year.. If flowers grow in heaven, Lord, then pick a bunch for me. Then place them in my mother's arms and tell her they're from me. Tell her that I love and miss her and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for awhile...

“ Dear Collins Family, As the anniversary of the passing of Ms. Collins approaches, I want you all to know I was devastated when I learned from Jackie that she had passed. She was always extremely nice to me and always made me feel welcome in her home. She was much more than a wonderful person, she was always so kind and considerate to me and I will remember that about her forever. I can still recall the first time she invited me into her home, I really felt a great sense of love and caring in that house. I know her passing will leave a HUGE void in your lives, but each time I saw her, she had been or was reading her bible, so I know right now she is walking with Jesus. Please know, I loved your mother, I have for a long time and I truly regret not being in SC to tell her that and to say goodbye, but I have asked GOD to pass along that message. I thank all of you for showing me such kindness and respect and you all have my greatest sympathy as you continue to deal with this great loss. My most sincere thoughts and prayers are with you all. With my deepest sympathy, REB

“ Good morning momma and happy anniversary to you and daddy! 58 years is a long time and I know you are smiling and saying you might keep him another one or two--please be by him today and give him a smile and some peaceful thoughts. I know you watch over him and all of us every day and that makes me smile. He did great with Jackie's birthday, momma! You should be very proud of him! His car wouldn't start so he had to 'call in the troops' to help out as he says but the cake, card and balloons were beautiful and it gave her a smile or two! I know you know how much we love you but it never hurts to say it over and over--so know we love you and we miss your presence here on earth with us but we know you are enjoying being with God every day---what a way to spend your days and nights! God give her a special hug for us today and know you have a very special angel there with you! Amen!

“ Hey Mamaw, just wanted to say we missed you for Jackie's birthday this year to blow out the candles and make us smile and bring us all together. I know for Jackie it's been tough, especially as the evening went on. She needs to know of your love and light and heart being with her always even when you aren't physically here. All I've asked and wished for tonight for her is that you please continue to help her with your wonderful spirit and guide her, and show her that you are here with her, just in a different way. Love you very much and I hope you're having a wonderful and peaceful time there with God and Elvis and all the wonderful ones you've joined in heaven! Love, Trisa

“ Mom...It's been a month to the date and day that you passed away...It seems like just few mins ago I got the call from daddy saying come home, I think mom is gone! It was a 17 second phone call that I will never forget! I miss you...I miss your smile, your laugh, that look you give when nurse Jackie is on your case about oxygen or your foot. I miss your heart, the faith you showed every second of every day you lived. I miss seeing your eyes light up with joy at the simple things in life! I miss your soft hands that would cross my cheek every time I'd lean down and kiss you before I left the house. I miss you tag teaming with me to pick on daddy when he'd pick on us. I miss us laughing together till we both couldn't breath. I miss the love that you gave your baby as you called me. I miss doctor appointments and you saying 'you have to tell them everything don't you' lol. I miss you...I miss our spa days together...doing your hair and talking about anything. I miss how you'd thank me for the least little thing I'd do for you. What I wouldn't give for just one more day with you...one more minute wouldn't be enough to express how much you mean to me and just how much I lived for you and loved you. Many doctors told you to abort me when you found out you were pregnant with me. But you said,.. 'no, God gave me this child and Ill see it through if he lets me live.' I told you, just like you didnt give up on me, I would never give up on you...I would make sure you had good doctors and as long as there was breath in my body youd be cared for! I hope I fulfilled that promise! You prayed many nights to just live to see me and David raised. I guess we are raised...! By the best mother that's ever lived. I miss you.... Not a minute of a day goes by that I don't think of you. I fight back tears often. I know you're safe with God, and not suffering in any way...but I sure do miss you! Till we meet again...Ill see you later alligator...(I miss that smile and hearing you say 'after while crocodile' ...) God bless you and keep you! Love your baby, Jackie Marie! PS....Ill take care of daddy...we all will! Promise!!

“ I MISS YOU, MOM!!! With all my heart and soul! See you later alligator... The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever. (Psalms 23:1-6 KJV)
