Frank, known as Butch while growing up, was born in Brooklyn, NY on July 9,

1941, to the late George H. and Mary Dempsey Weber. After graduating from St. Francis Preparatory High School, he went on to Boston University on a Track and Field scholarship. He married his college sweetheart, Marilyn J. Twiss, on August 10, 1963. After graduating with a degree in Business from BU, he entered Officer Candidate School (OCS), and went on to become a Naval Aviator and Flight Officer. He proudly served his country for 21 years, including combat service in the Vietnam War (1965-1975). After retirement, he opened a small screen-printing business, The Screenery, in Summerville, SC. In 2008, he moved to Edgewater, MD where he worked as a tax preparer with H&R Block, as well as help manage Selby Bay Marina.

Frank was predeceased by his parents, George and Mary Weber, four siblings: John "Jackie" Weber, George "Mickey" Weber, Mary Elizabeth Weber, and Theresa "DeeDee" Weber, as well as his first wife, Marilyn J. Weber. He is survived by his current wife, Karen Richardson Weber of Edgewater, MD, and his four children: Frank Weber, Jr. (Tracy) of Gambrills, MD, Mariam Dittmann (Robby) of Crestview, FL, David Weber of Aurora, IL, and Beverlee Branton (William) of Summerville, SC. He is also survived by five grandchildren: Matthew Dittmann, Blake Metzger, Emily Weber, Bradley Metzger, and Daniel Weber, as well as, multiple nieces and nephews.

“ I met Frank when his wife, Marilyn, came to work with me at the Journal Scene. He later rented a space in the Icehouse for his screening shop. He was so supportive of his wife and their kids. He was a true Patriot. Margaret joins me in sending our condolences to his children.
