“ Rest in peace Aunt Lena..... The last of the sisters... I have fond memories of family get togethers sometimes too far in between because of military service....I remember my aunts singing all together, harmonizing in the kitchen cleaning up after a fantastic meal! Aunt Lena was "old school" with conservative values that she taught all her nieces and nephews...she had a zeal for life and loved to enjoy it...she really enjoyed dancing and bingo...Lord, did she! She was a kind, gentle lady who genuinely cared about others. She had a sweet spirit within her. I am sad she is no longer on this Earth, but rejoice she is now with all her sisters and her King, Jesus.....

So long for now Aunt Lena, but I will surely see you again in the Lord's timing!

*Your nephew,
Mark Ferebee*
