“ Mr. Leo's house was always a place of adventure for me as a child, from gifts of sugarcane for my Daddy (Rhelma Rudd) to cut up for later, to playing in the dog pens with the hunting dogs. His garden always rivaled my own grandparents & was filled with the best produce one could only grow with their own hands & God's blessing. I always felt welcome & never left empty handed. They don't make 'em like him anymore & it's a shame. I know he's got a welcoming committee in heaven & my Daddy will be right there waiting to show him where all the good hunting spots are up there.

My thoughts & prayers are with the Hill family as they celebrate the life of a local legend.

Love,

“ The first time I met you Papa you were supervising your sons/grandchildren building that hog pen in the back pasture to catch all those wild hogs messing up your garden. I am blessed to have had you in my life the past 6 years. You left an impact on so many people you came in contact with. You are truly one of a kind. They don't make em like that anymore. I adore and look up to you always.
