“ I loved Linda and loved working with her. We started working together many years ago and I remember her getting calls from her kids and she was always sharing about them and the rest of her family. Please find comfort in knowing she loved you all so much and it was so obvious how much you all meant to her. I'm sure she will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Susan Jordan

“ Linda, you were my friend from the beginning when you greeted me with that beautiful smile eleven years ago. That smile never left your face even when we had to say goodbye. My friend, I will forever carry your beautiful smile in my heart until we meet again. You were truly a blessing to me. As for now, you have earned the right to fly high my friend, fly high.

*“ Mrs. Linda will be sorely missed by so many. She touched so many lives and had a sweet soul. Fayth, I hope you find inner peace and strength. You're a stronger woman than you know ;) and you have a huge support system. We all love you so much! You were the apple of your Mother's eye and she was the same to you. Hold on tight to all of the precious memories you have together. God bless you all and you'll remain in my heart, prayers and thoughts.
