“ Linda was a very special friend to me some of kids grew up with each other. We laughed a lot
And there were sometimes times when we would cry together but I do know that her faith was very strong and when those days grew harder she knew who she could trust to help her through it even to the end I loved her so very much and I will always remember those moments we shared and I know that I will see her again someday when God take me home one day so it's not goodbye it's see you later!!

Beautiful photo of Linda. We were prayer partners at First Emmanuel and became friends from the Ladies Missionary Fellowship. I've missed her since we moved to another church. But happy to hear she is with her Savior now. Prayers sent for her dear family as you go through these difficult days ahead. Kimberly White

These are some of the happiest moments I remember with my mom. She loved playing games. She loved to laugh and her children could make her laugh like nobody else. We miss you so much already Mom especially that laugh, but thank you for passing your joy and your laughter onto us. Until we meet again. Love your son, Robert XO XO
