“ Mrs. Stancil & Bill so sorry to find out about Mr. Stancil's passing. Our prayers are with you both. So sorry that I was a day late on finding out. I remember how he use to help momma out with plowing up a gardening space for her so she could plant. You all have been on my mind a long time but never visited. If you ever need anything let us know. Sending our love to all of you.

“ You always knew that if you were in the hospital Bill was coming to visit with you, joke with you and pray with you! That is certainly what he did with me and my family! He was one of the kindest men and he will never be forgotten! Until we laugh together in heaven Mr. Bill!! Love you and love Mrs. Jan! Praying for peace and comfort for you Mrs. Jan.

“ Several years ago, I was injured in a motorcycle accident and one of the many visitors from Cathedral was Bill Stancil. He prayed with me and made me laugh during that time, reminding me of God's Love and Care. I will miss his smile and jokes.

“ To The Stancil Family. I met Mr. Bill at Cathedral. What a wonderful person. I would seek him and his wife out each Sunday just for the hello and hugs. I just adored the both of them.....like a surrogate grandparents.
I looked forward to always seeing them and dearly missed when not seen at church. Earth has no sorry, that heaven cannot heal.

“ We were fairly new to Cathedral when Paul needed a knee replacement. It was very early in the morning of his surgery and Bill showed up to pray over him. What a sweet man who did not know us to show up so early in the morning to agree that the great physician had everything under control. We so look forward to seeing him again when it is our time to join him. A hug to his wonderful wife who helped make him the wonderful man he was.

“ When we met the Stancils, it was easy to navigate memories as Bill grew up in Virginia and attended Warwick High School. They were known as the Warwick Farmers. My husband, Bill, attended Churchland and I attended Cradock High School. He jokingly called me "Miss Cradock". He was always there to pray for us and hold our hand when either of us had surgery. Always a kind word and a sweet smile. He was a wonderful mentor to the men of our church. One more mention. The Warwick Farmers changed to the Warwick Warriors. A very apt name since Bill was one of God's Prayer Warrior. Jan, we will be standing with you in prayer. Please know we are here to help. ❤️❤️ Bill and Letty Parrish

“ We remember Bill as being such a gentleman. We were associated with both Jan and Bill in sharing our love for Arabian horses, and remember so many gatherings we had with them.
