“ *What will it be like when my pain is gone
 And all the worries of this world just fade away?
 What will it be like when You call my name
 And that moment when I see You face to face?
 I'm waiting my whole life to hear You say
 Well done, well done
 My good and faithful one
 Welcome to the place where you belong
 Well done, well done
 My beloved child
 You have run the race and now you're home
 Welcome to the place where you belong
 What will it be like when tears are washed away
 And every broken thing will finally be made whole?
 What will it be like when I come into Your glory
 Standing in the presence of a love so beautiful?
 I'm waiting my whole life for that day
 I will live my life to hear You say
 Well done, well done
 My good and faithful one
 Welcome to the place where you belong
 Well done, well done
 My beloved child
 You have run the race and now you're home
 Welcome to the place where you belong
 What will it be like when I hear that sound?
 All of heaven's angels crying out:
 Singing holy, holy, holy are You, Lord
 Singing holy, holy, holy are You, Lord
 Singing holy, holy, holy are You, Lord
 Waiting my whole life for that day
 Until then I'll live to hear You say
 Well done, well done
 My good and faithful one
 Welcome to the place where you belong
 Well done, well done
 My beloved child
 You have run the race and now you're home
 Welcome to the place where you belong
 Well done*

*Thank you Aunt Loretta - Well done

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of Loretta. I knew her through her neighbors the Lapollas. The Lapollas were family and I remember Aunt Betty and Loretta working together on crafts to sell for the orphanage, Tara Hall. I got to know Loretta quite well over the years and my son, Ronny and I used to visit from time to time. Paul and Loretta were very generous and kind. I remember Loretta was very skilled and worked weaving looms to demonstrate for visitors at one of the gardens. She was very talented and will be missed.
