

Lorraine Dennis Maguire

September 27, 1950 - August 10, 2024

Lorraine Dennis Maguire, 74, of Summerville SC passed away at home on August 10, 2024. She was born on September 27, 1950 in Chelsea, Massachusetts. She was the daughter of U.S.M.C Captain Charles Dennis and Lorraine Dennis.

Lorraine graduated from Beaufort High School and later pursued her passion for nursing at Walterboro School of Nursing. She was a life-long advocate for women's rights. Her dedication to providing quality healthcare was evident throughout her career and personal life.

Lorraine is survived by her loving husband, Michael H. Maguire; her only daughter, Shelley Maguire Bell (Robert Dantzler); and her two granddaughters, Morgan Bell (Bailey Cox), and Lauren Bell (Noah McGahee). She was preceded in death by her parents and her sister Hope Allmond (Perry Allmond).

Lorraine will be remembered for her compassionate spirit, her dedication to her family, her unwavering kindness, and her passion for civil rights. Her legacy will live on in the hearts of those she touched.

Friends and family are invited to celebrate Lorraine's life from 6-8 pm on Monday, August 19 at James A. Dyal Funeral Home in Summerville, SC.
