“ What a privilege to have this sweet lady in my life. So many memories growing up, from the never ending supply of pink grandma candies at her house to the camping trips in the old pop up camper. I never saw her without a smile on her face. Just being around her was food for the soul. Love you grandma. See you again someday.

Bobby - January 29, 2018 at 06:40 PM

What a great summer you boys had in the pop-up camper. Very special grandma for sure.

“Mrs Lunette was always a sweethearted, loving lady. Every time i saw her she had a smile on her face. The few times i went to her house she always wanted to feed me. She was such a great cook! She was also a great mom because every family member i met has the same heart of gold. Mrs Lunette instilled the love of the Lord in her family and it shows. All my love and sympathy to the Rankin family, Lori S.

“ Oh the memories, where do I start. There are so many from the house in White Pine to the Apartment in Summerville. I started to share some of those memories with Grandma which she appreciated. Such a great mind to remember, a huge heart full of love, and an all around awesome person to be around. I think the one that stands out the most is how much she enjoy "porchin' it". I'm sure she is doing that right now with the most beautiful views one can only imagine. Love you Grandma, and thank you for being an inspiration.

“Lunette taught me about trusting God. She and I shared a heart related health challenge. When I had A life threatening afib challenge she mentored me with joy, love and a faith that is unfailing. Her prayers and love of Jesus will forever be imprinted on my heart. My heart was not only healed but transformed. Seeing the love and devotion in her family (especially her daughters Cheryl and Peggy) was so inspiring and heart lifting. We have lost many dear friends recently but none whose passing I have been more joyful for and certain of than Sweet Lunette. There is no doubt she is now with her beloved Jesus. She was a perfect example of what our Saviour wants to see in each of us. I am so blessed to call her friend. I will miss her terribly. ❤️ I am so grateful to her family for allowing me some of her precious time this past year. Julie Koenig

“I will never forget the days spent at her house making catfish, watching daytime game shows after school, the Birthday cards with $5 bills every year without fail, the stories about growing up and raising her kids, and the constant reminders of how much she loved her family. Her faith, joy, and strength never ceased amazing me. She will be so incredibly missed, but I don't know anyone more deserving of paradise ❤️ Love you, great grandma

“ I will forever remember her and grandpa pushing their baby James in his stroller. They would beam like very proud grandparents do. We would laugh when someone would look and see this little brown boy and they would just smile and talk about their grandson. They both will forever hold a place in my heart❤️

“ Mom left this place very peaceful and excited about finishing her journey to be at the feet of Jesus. A classy little lady she was, who loved to see other people smile. She taught us to always turn everything over to God and simply trust.
