“ Jack was my brother and he will be missed! We were great buddies and communicated by phone a lot. I would call him from California to see how he and Faye were doing.

I have lost a great brother! I pray that he is in heaven with Jesus Christ. I will always remember him. I would like to extend our deepest sympathy to Faye and family. May God grant Jack eternal peace and bless Faye and the rest of the family!

With much love from David, Marisa and their children with their families.

To my Pop, from your youngest son...

I love you. You're off to something better now. You finished your sentence on this prison planet upon which all of us are incarcerated. Enjoy your freedom. You were a solid man, a good father. You overcame the adversity of the life you were born into. I hope I gave you some joy in this ugly world. I'll miss you until we once again enjoy each other on The Other Side.
