“ John, Shannon, Jay, Stacy and families, I share your sorrow and grief at Beths passing. As sisters we shared so many memories. Two little girls in a big double bed giggling under the covers at night sharing secrets of growing up. She helped me transform from a tomboy to a young woman, then a wife, then a mother. For me the greatest thing we shared was a birthday. I was so proud to be her little sister born on the same day that she was even if it was 6 years later. Though we have been seperated by distance for some time it was always comforting to know she was there back home. I will most certainly miss that now. Rest in peace, Beth, in Gods loving arms.
