“ *Whenever I learn that another Marine has answered the final muster, I am reminded of the words in our Marine's Hymn that tell us the streets of Heaven, "...are guarded By United States Marines." Rest your pack, Marine. You still have duty to do.

“ To Rita and the entire Robinson family,

Our numbers of Fox Company are thinning. The Marines I served with were the best. I want to pause and offer this tribute and thanks for Major Robinson for his service. I was in third platoon in 1967.

I am a retired Veterans Administration Chaplain. I pray that you will find comfort in the love of our Lord Jesus. May you feel His presence and grace reaching you today. I will be praying for you and your family in the coming days. May our Lord comfort and guide you through this trying time.

“ Rita,

We are so sad to hear of Harvey's passing. You have our deepest condolences. Harvey was a dear, sweet man and it was a pleasure chatting and hanging out with him when the neighborhood gang got together. Of course, Randy spent many enjoyable hours on the golf course with him. You, your daughter and grandchildren are in our thoughts and prayers. You were truly blessed to have such a wonderful husband, father and grandfather in your lives and we were blessed to call him our friend and neighbor.
