In Loving Memory of Myrtle Maree Livingston

Sunrise: May 08, 1939– Sunset: October 30, 2025

With deep love and gratitude, we celebrate the life of our beloved mom, grandmother, great grandmother, and great great grandmother, Maree who went home to be with the Lord on October 30, 2025. She was a woman of unwavering faith, strength, and grace whose life reflected the love of Christ.

Born on May 8, 1939, in Charleston, SC, Maree was the daughter of the late Wilmot Eadie, Sr. and Myrtle Alice Carter. She grew up in the Lowcountry and attended Summerville High School. Maree was married to the love of her life, Frederick Livingston, with whom she shared many wonderful years of marriage.

For over 50 years, Maree faithfully taught Sunday School at First Baptist Church of Jedburg sharing the Word of God and touching many lives through her kindness and devotion. She found great joy in tending to her flowers, and her home was always filled with their beauty and warmth. Maree was also known for her delicious homemade cinnamon rolls, a sweet reminder of the love and care she poured into everything she did.

She leaves behind children Cindy and Bobby, Suzanne and Will, her siblings:

Wilmot Eadie, Sylvia Burrow, and Billie Jean Mitcham; Grandchildren -Robbie, Joy and Shawn, Jessica and Drew, William, Great grandchildren: Taylor, Riley, Connor, Alex, Oliver, Jo, as well as her Great great granddaughter Harper who will forever treasure her love, guidance, and prayers.

A visitation of family and friends will be held on Tuesday, November 4, 2025, from 11am to 12pm at James A. Dyal Funeral Home. The funeral service will begin at 12pm in the Chapel. Burial will immediately follow at Highland Memory Gardens.

Though we mourn her passing, we rejoice knowing she is now at peace in the presence of her Savior.

“Well done, good and faithful servant... enter into the joy of your Lord.” —
