

Margaret Maddox Aldridge

April 1, 1947 - October 11, 2025

Margaret Maddox Aldridge, 78, of Summerville, SC, passed away peacefully on October 11, 2025.

Born on April 1, 1947, in Charleston, SC, Margaret was the cherished daughter of the late Coleman and Gertrude Maddox.

Margaret was married for 57 years to Edmund Carlton Aldridge III. Their enduring partnership was a testament to love, faith, and commitment. Together, they built a home full of laughter, learning, and love.

Margaret earned her master's degree and dedicated her career to teaching English. Outside the classroom, she was an avid reader, loved crossword puzzles, and a companion to her cherished dogs. Margaret and her husband served eight years abroad at Dalat School in Penang, Malaysia as missionaries. Above all, Margaret loved her family. She found her greatest joy in time spent with her grandchildren, whom she adored beyond measure.

She is survived by her loving husband, Edmund Aldridge III; her son, David Joshua Aldridge (Megan); her grandchildren: Adilyn, Maddox, Sawyer, and Hudson; her siblings: Martha Rogers and Betty Portis; as well as numerous beloved nieces and nephews.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.
