

Margaret "Peggy" Bivens

June 8, 1930 - August 23, 2011

Margaret "Peggy" Bivens, of Summerville, wife of 61 years to Joseph H. Bivens, died Tuesday, August 23, 2011 at Roper Hospital.

Funeral service will be held Saturday, August 27, 2011 at 2 o'clock at Summerville Presbyterian Church, Summerville, 409 South Laurel Street, Summerville. Burial will follow at Live Oak Memorial Gardens, Hwy. 61, Charleston. Friends may call at James A. Dyal Funeral Home, Summerville from 6 until 8 o'clock Friday evening.

Mrs. Bivens was born June 8, 1930 in Russellville, South Carolina, daughter of the late Richard Franklin Harrell and Rachel Elizabeth Copeland Harrell. She was a graduate of St Andrews High School and St. Francis School of Nursing. She enjoyed spending time with her family, gardening, and loved being a nurse for 60 years. She also sang first soprano for a local radio station in the 1940's. She was a member of Summerville Presbyterian Church and retired from Roper Hospital as a Registered Nurse.

Surviving in addition to her husband are: two daughters: Ann Elizabeth Bivens of Charleston and Catherine Bivens Evans of Robbinsville, NC, four grandchildren: Rev. Joseph Belton Evans of Columbia, TN, Elizabeth Michelle Evans of New Orleans, LA, William Eric Slaughter of Charleston and Justin William Evans of Asheville, NC, two great grandchildren: Lily Suzana Evans and Cecelia Jane Evans both of Columbia, TN, one sister: Nora Ann Harrell Pugh of Charlotte, NC and one brother: Richard Franklin Harrell, Jr. of Ocala, FL.

Tribute Wall

“ Margaret "Peggy" Bivens

---

September 29, 2022 at 10:11 AM