*Dear Lorene and family so sorry to have gotten this sad news! So sorry of your loss of a husband, Father, grand father, a great grandfather! No one will ever replace the Love And CARE that he had for all of you! But there's one thing that we all don't have to worry about, that one day we'll all see him again because of his life that he lived! And as GOD taken him home to heaven no more worries, no more pain! And thank God he didn't suffer at the end! Now he'll have that new body ! I know it will be so hard to let Him go! but I don't think he would want to come back to this old world because as we know heaven is a beautiful place that one day we'll meet him again! We will be praying for all of you to have peace and remember all the good times with your love one! And we will miss him too! Harris Lee, LOVED his brother Like a father to! Harris Lee always have told me how much his brother always help his mother cause of him losing their father so young! And I thank GOD on Labor Day we visited his brother for a few hours and that Buster was able to hear his brother tell him that he LOVED HIM!
Lorene please give us a call if you need us! Love all of you ! Wanda and Harris Lee Muckelvaney*
