“ *Kelly and English and family,
May God give you all comfort as you mourn the loss of a loving father. Our prayers are for God to keep the memories of the cherished times fresh in your mind.
Love to all,
Russell and Debbie Sheldon*

“ I remember watching Mr. Marion watching a boxing match when I visited as a kid. He kept me laughing with all of his tucks and jabs. I think he noticed pretty early on how much I enjoyed his silly antics and played it up even more. Thank you, Mr. Marion, for being so sweet to me each time I came over,

“ I have many good memories as not only a neighbor, but working with Marion at Hallman Buick, downtown. I was in awe of his sporty Corvette, and his love of life. I will always remember our visits over the years. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of the family.

Friends -

I worked with Marion at Allen-White Pontiac in Charleston back in 1980. He was a good man to work for and when I quit work to start college he encouraged me to "go get an education". When my father passed away in the summer of 1980, Marion drove all the way to Summerville to attend the wake and I have never forgotten his kindness. He always spoke of his daughters in glowing terms. Blessings on you all during this time.
