

Marjorie Ruth Clay Kramer

June 9, 1931 - April 5, 2026

Marjorie Ruth Clay Kramer, 94, of Summerville, passed away peacefully on Sunday, April 5, 2026.

Born on June 9, 1931, in Patchogue, New York, Marjorie was the beloved daughter of the late William Robert Clay and Ruth Amanda Pedrick Clay. She shared an extraordinary life and marriage with her devoted husband, George John Kramer, celebrating 72 years together. Her idea of a great day was going to lunch with friends then shopping for the WHOLE day. Her most treasured times were those spent with her family.

She spent many years as a Credit Authorizer for Sears Roebuck, where she was known for her outgoing personality and friendly nature. In March of 1990, Marjorie became the very first volunteer at Summerville Medical Center before it was even a hospital! She loved it so much she spent 25 years there racking up over 8000 volunteer hours. For fun Marge and her belly dancing group would put on shows for the Senior Citizens Centers. She also spent 25 years as a Docent for the Charleston Historical Society. Marjorie was a faithful and devoted member of Dorchester Presbyterian Church. Marjorie will be remembered for her loving heart, her bright smile, and the joy she brought to her family and friends.

She is survived by her daughter, Karen Lorraine Kramer and her son, Robert

George Kramer.
