“ I am sending this with much sadness. Mark was in my class during junior high and high school. He was always so respectful of everyone. He was a great student. My sincere sympathy to his entire family. I worked with his mother for years and also worked with Elaine.

“ I, along with many others, had the great pleasure of working with Mark at Behr in Charleston since 1996. It was truly a great honor to have been his friend since that time. I was lucky to have reconnected, at least by phone, with Mark just last week and was looking forward to seeing him again soon in person. Sheryll and I pray for Mark, Patty, and all their family. While we are devastated by this loss, we take comfort in God's mercy and His plan and will always remember the joy Mark brought to us. Rest in Peace friend.
