“ We miss you so very much. Bentley talks about you frequently and it brings tears to my eyes. I wish you were here with us still. Susie and Mark are having a hard time! But the amazing part of this all is. You've got another grand baby on the way!! It's been 11 weeks since you've been gone and I am 10 weeks pregnant with a angel that you sent down! We love and miss you dearly

“ I want to apologize to the Reber family for the typo's due to faults in my keyboard. My sincere condolences are with Marks family at this time of sorrow. My prayers are with all of you. May you someday find peace within your broken hearts. Although it has been many years since I last saw the Rebers, my heart warming memories of the little blonde haired Markie are filled with much joy. I had no doubt that he would grow up to become a loving, caring, giving, respectful, amazingly wonderful man. The sparkle in his eyes, smile, and mannerisms were apparent as a child. His light will forever shine...REST IN PEACE MARK.

“ After years of not talking or seeing each other I got back in touch with Mark on Facebook and it was like we had never stopped talking. Catching up on life and all the happenings, talking about the good times we all had when he lived in the area and how happy he was in being a police officer, having his grandson and living life. We vowed to stay in touch. I am so glad that all of this happened and now so sad that Mark has left us all too soon. My love goes out to the entire Reber family and the reasons I had met such a wonderful person, his sister Julie and brother Henry. Hugs to all and Mark I will see you someday with that wonderful smile. Love
