Susan Henderson - April 28, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Sandy, Cindy, Melanie & Families, I wish to express my heartfelt sympathy to you. It has been a pleasure to know Marvin. He has had a struggle with his health for years, but has put the Lord first. The mtg. in his home meant so much to him. May the God of all comfort be near to you and strengthen you to face the future. My thoughts and prayers are with you. He had a living hope and therefore he can look forward to the new body. With love & sympathy, Betty Denton
