“ Uncle jack, I truly loved my auntie Mary. I remember sleeping over your house in Springfield and the pot luck dinners, hanging out with Richard and Michael and getting into trouble. She was a wonderful person who was kind and good. Sleep well auntie Mary you will be missed

“ Mary wasn't here in SC long enough. She was a delightful lady with a beautiful smile. No one was ever a stranger to her, she was liked by everyone. I can picture her now standing outside of the Golden Gate waving and saying "Hello Everybody". Sleep well my friend. Marianne Myers

“ Mike,

I'm so sorry to hear of your moms passing. She was a great lady (especially putting up with all us kids taking over the house in NY). My deepest condolences to you, and your family. Sending you as much strength as I can at this difficult time my friend. You are always in my prayers "froggy do".
