“ Dear Brenda and Family, We are very sorry for the passing of your mother. Aunt Susie was so kind to our family. Uncle Jack was so blessed to have had her in his life. We are sorry that her last days were difficult for her, yet having you there was a blessing Brenda. We will keep each of you in our prayers, and will be keeping in touch with you as well. May God Walk With Each Of You Tomorrow. Love, Mark, Barb, Sarah, and Kaine Burner

“ My grandmother was such a wonderful woman, she loved me, my husband and our two babies very much. I'm heartbroken beyond words, and upset that I had to say goodbye under these circumstances. Kaelyn, Karleigh, Tyler and I will never forget the wonderful and loving things you have done for us, we will hold you in our hearts forever until we meet again. We will see each other again one day, we love you so much mammy.

“ Brenda, Terry and I are so sorry to hear of Aunt Susie's passing. We wish that we could have visited or perhaps help you shoulder some of the burden you alone carried. This is an end of a very long journey for Susie, but a new beginning for you... without the constant worry over your mother. May God bless you with with light, love, support and peace during this difficult time. You are always in our thoughts and prayers.
