

Mary Amick Funderburk

November 11, 1935 - March 28, 2025

Mary Amick Funderburk, 89 of Summerville, SC, passed away on Friday, March 28th, 2025, surrounded by family.

Born on November 11th, 1935, in Spartanburg, SC, Mary was the daughter of the late Robert R. Amick and his wife, Ruby Bryson Amick. Mary was a 1954 graduate of Spartanburg High School. She earned her bachelor's degree in English from Converse College and her master's degree in education from Lander University. As a teacher in South Carolina schools for thirty years, Mary excelled in working with students in junior high and high school. Mary was devoted to her husband of 52 years, Reverend Donald Funderburk. Together they served in the United Methodist Church within South Carolina. Mary and her husband spent their retirement at their home in Lake Junaluska, North Carolina where they enjoyed many happy years. Mary was an active member in her church, First United Methodist of Waynesville where she served in the United Methodist Women as a leader. She made many friends as a member of The Junaluska's home owners association. She was an organizer of several trips with various groups from Lake Junaluska. Mary was a woman of faith which guided her through all aspects of life.

Mary's parents and her sister, Jean A. Bobo preceded her in death. Her brother-in-law, Rev. Kenneth Bobo along with their children, grandchildren, additional family members and special friends survive her.

She is survived by her loving children: Marc Funderburk (Betts) and Celeste Brown (Art); her grandchildren: Anne Funderburk, Kate Funderburk, Jennie Haithcock (Jud), Caroline Brown, and Julia Brown.

Tribute Wall

MR

“ Mary always had a smile and welcome for everyone she was a joy to be near at FUMC Waynesville

Margaret Rogers - June 03, 2025 at 08:11 PM

PM

“ I worked alongside Mary in the woman's Club and other areas while I lived at LJ over the years.
Pat Maier

pat Maier - April 07, 2025 at 04:41 PM