“ I was on this site looking for details on the mother of a friend who recently passed. When I typed in the name Mary, imagine my surprise to see Miss Ting listed. Naturally, I had to read all the tributes and the obituary.

Colette, I am a bit late in expressing my condolences but I have lost touch with the few people I knew when I taught at CDS. Those two years as The English Department were special because the facility, staff, and student body were like one big family. Your mom was part of the total picture. Steady and smart and full of wisdom.

Much love, Annette Gill formerly known as Ms. Mack!

“ We send prayers of peace for all of you. We have fond memories of Aunt Mary and her zest for life. It is always difficult when we lose a parent; never really prepared. But nice to picture them with angel wings in heaven. Love, Charlene and Grace

“ Ms. "Ting" was one in a million. The Saturday nights of Mr. Jesse and her playing cards with my grandparents to trying to keep a straight face while disciplining a group of teen-age boys in the library at Country Day School. I will always remember a smiling, classy lady.
