“ My condolences to Matt's family. My son, Zach, and Matt were friends in USMC. Matt had come home with Zach on a couple of occasions so I got to meet him. Zach was killed in a car wreck while home in 2004 before the 3/2 deployed to Iraq. Matt felt bad that he was not able to come home with Zach and potentially prevent such an accident. That was the kind of person he was. He continued to call Zach's mom on Mother's Day and wish her well. This was an act of someone with a big heart. I enjoyed his posts with his girls on Facebook. He will be missed. I pray you and your family.

Mike, Jo Ann and Heather,

Matt's huge personality will live on in our memories forever. We will never forget that little boy who grew up to be a Marine protecting our country, and a wonderful father to Norah and Jane. We are so very sorry for your loss, and are at a loss for words. We know that Brett is taking good care of Matt in Heaven until we are all reunited again. Until that time, Matt will be watching over all of you forever!

Love,
