“ For Merry,
Spend some time with a single flower.
A rose maybe.
Smell it, touch the pedals.
Really look at it.

Take a paint set and lay down some colors.
Watch birds.
Eat an apple, a really nice one.
I hope it is crisp.
Look up at the sky and see the stars.
See the Man in the moon.

Have a dish of strawberry ice cream in my name.
Or chocolate.

If it's winter, have a cup of hot chocolate outside for me.
If it's summer, a big glass of sweet tea.

If it's autumn, collect some leaves and press's them in a book you love.
I'm a teacher, you see.
I'd like that.

I would wish for you a flower.
I would wish for you to blossom,
to be open and to be beautiful.

Love your friends and family like I loved mine.
Play, and dance and laugh, and just have fun.
Enjoy the little things
They meant alot to me.

Smile at others and make their day brighter.
Laugh and connect and giggle and enjoy the moment.
Care for those whose day might not be as good.

Be warm and caring and understanding.

*So when you are missing me,
Sit and look out a window and write down what you see.
I'm not really gone, , you see.
I right there beside you in everything you see.*

“ Mrs. Merry was a very kind person. I met her a few years ago at one of her providers offices. She had a heart of gold and it definitely showed. She would always ask how me and my family were doing each and every time she came in. She told me how she loved to teach children; especially how to read. Mrs. Merry asked me one day how old my grandchildren were. I didn't think too much about it at that moment. Then a few days later, she dropped back by the office with 2 containers of her reading book collections for me to give to my grands. She expressed to me that her book collections were precious to her as they had help so many children through the years learn how to read. It melted my heart as she was wanting to give my grands some of her beloved books. We still have the books and container she sent them in. Mrs. Merry will be missed by many I'm sure. I know she made a lasting impression on me and I didn't know her as well as a lot of other people did. Rest easy Mrs. Merry and walk the Angels.

“Merry lived next door to me when she was a child. She was such a nice and sweet girl, that when I married, my husband and I hoped to have a little girl just like her! She gave me a set of dish towels that I still have one or two. That was in 1956! Although she moved away, I never forgot her. I am so sorry she is gone. Virginia Gathings Haskin”

Merry was my husbands cousin from Pittsburgh, Pa. He lived with her & her parents when he was little. Sadly he lost touch with her when her dad died. We just learned of her passing & were devastated by the news. We pray that Merry, Chad & Andrea rest in peace encircled in God's loving arms.

“ My heart is heavy because of the loss of my friend. I was Merry's teaching assistant for five years at Flowertown Elementary. She loved her students with every fiber of her being and wanted to see each child succeed, not only scholastically but with their self-esteem.

I am so glad Merry and I had re-connected recently and just had lunch together two weeks ago. I know now that God brought us back together again.

Merry, Chad, and Andrea will be sorely missed in this community, and Dean's and my prayers are with all family members in this incredibly sad time. We pray each one will feel God's loving and comforting arms around them.
