“ Mike was funny, irreverent and kind. He always made us feel like family from the first time we met to the last time we were with him. He was always up for an adventure and would spring into action on a moment's notice.

Mike's sense of adventure and zest for life was with him to the end. With the unrelenting love and dedication of his wife, Kelly, and his daughter, Ella (as well as many others), Mike lived life until the end. He inspired us as he pushed forward traveling, seeing, doing and being. He was thankful, gracious and loving in spite of his illness. One of Mike's lasting gifts to those of us fortunate enough to see and receive it is the the example he set when he refused to stop living just because he was dying.

I will miss Mike and am heartbroken for Kelly and Ella. In the quiet times of reflection and sadness, through the tears, I will remember Mike's example of pushing on, not giving up and refusing to stop living because he was dying.

With love, sympathy and sincere admiration,
