“ Mr Mike, my heart goes out to his wonderful wife Linda & his devoted family . I will truly miss the team manager that devoted his time to guide me through wonderful years at IHG. He has a special place in my heart and shared alot of respect to each and everyone on our great team Beta at the time I retired in 2012. You will be missed but God has his plans for you in a better place. Beverly Sudakow

“ Mike was a manager that always cared enough to want you to be the best you could be. He pushed me and always made me a better person for it. Even when we became more colleagues instead for boss and employee he always was there when I needed him. He will be missed always.
