“ *MISS MILLIE - BUT LET HER GO When MILLIE came to the end of the road And the sun set for her She wanted no lamentations in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a person who has gone to sleep? Ache for Millie a little--but not too long And not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared. Pine for MILDRED--but let her go. For this is a journey that we all must take And each must go alone. It's all a part of Jehovah's plan A step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart Go to the friends we know And bury your sorrows in doing GOOD deeds. Miss MILLIE - But Let Her Go. “ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this difficult time. Millie and James have been like a second Mom and Dad to me as Marcia was one of the best friends I ever had. Now Millie is with Marcia are together again. My Mother and Father thought the world of Millie and James and were good friends. May you find comfort in knowing that she was loved and made such an impact on so many people with her kindness and caring way. Love and prayers! Mary & Jack Parker
