“ Nancy was my go to person for Neuro and anything else. She had more knowledge and compassion in her pinky finger than some will ever have!! Always ready with a Hug and a Smooch when she saw you. I can still hear her saying "Good Evening, Trident ICU this is Mrs. Clark. How May I help you?" I will miss you very much, you Sweet and Funny Angel!

Glenda Wickizer - April 18, 2016 at 12:00 AM

Nancy is in H-E-L-L right now. May she never rest in peace! Too bad you didn't know her dark side like I did. She wasted so much money on that tombstone.

David Zernhelt - October 16, 2023 at 11:55 PM

“ So sorry for your loss.the time that was spent here on earth was meaningful to many who knew her. We pray the Lord's prayer asking for his kingdom to come and his will be done in heaven also on earth. We truly look for the results of that kingdom found at(Revalation21:3&4).

“ Prayers to your family in this time of deep sorrow. Nancy was one of the first nurses that welcomed me with open arms in the ICU at Trident. She was a meticulous, amazing, a very compassionate nurse who ALWAYS put her patient needs first. Nancy touched so many people and helped all of us who worked with her become better nurses, just by watching her example. Rest in peace Nancy.

“ I love you like a mother. You taught me so much as a young nurse and made me the nurse I am. Forever grateful for your knowledge, love, and compassion. You treated me like a daughter and my son like your grandchild. I will miss you dearly. You've always been an angel now you are home. My deepest sympathies to all of the family. Know that you all were what made her smile every day and love so deeply. Clark family you were Angel Nancy's world.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Nancy's passing. She was a wonderful person and amazing nurse. I admired her knowledge and respected her as a co-worker/friend. In the 4 short years that I got to work with Nancy, I enjoyed hearing her stories and listening to her laugh. I have great memories of her from one of our Christmas parties giving Joel and I advice about marriage and how to keep it alive. She loved her family fiercely! She will be missed by many.

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. Ms. Nancy was a ray of sunshine! No words can take away or numb the heartache of her passing....but I take comfort in knowing that she will be a fabulous Guardian Angel in heaven watching over her husband, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren! Rest in Peace Nancy Clark and may your family find peace and comfort through your memories during this time. Sending my love and hugs to the entire Clark family.
